

Privacy Statement

Last Updated 2-9-07

Protecting Your Privacy

We respect your right to privacy and are committed to protecting your personal information. This document outlines how we protect your personal information at the Washington State Hunters & Jumpers Association (the "Association" or "We") and online at our Web site - www.wshaja.org (the "Web site"). We have prepared this statement to inform you ("You") of the privacy principles We follow (the "Privacy Policy").

We reserve the right to modify our Privacy Policy at any time. In the event that We make a modification to our Privacy Policy, We will post the changes to the Web site and will change the "Updated" date at the top of this page to reflect the date of the modification. Your enrollment as a member of the Association and Your use of the Web site indicates Your acceptance of the terms of this Privacy Policy including any posted updates. You are solely responsible for visiting this Web site from time to time to check for any updates. If You do not accept any of the terms of the Privacy Policy at any time, please contact the President of the Association.

Information We Collect - How and Why We Collect It

To become a member of the Association, We will ask You to provide some personal information in order to conduct transactions and allow You to take advantage of the services provided to our members. We also may obtain information from Your trainers, the USEF, and the horse shows You attend to administer these services. This information may include, but is not limited to, such items as Your name, address, date of birth, phone number, e-mail address, registration numbers of riders and horses, show results, prize money won, tax payer numbers, and credit card numbers (if you choose that method of payment) as well as similar items. The collection of personal information will occur at the time:

- You sign up for a membership in the Association
- You purchase goods or services at horse shows, banquets, and other locations
- You register for a promotion, contest, sweepstakes, or survey
- You email or correspond with the Association or one of our trusted third party vendors

How Information is Stored

We store Your personal information in paper form on Your membership application, horse show entries, banquet registrations and other event documentation for three years and non-credit card related personal information is stored electronically on secure operating environments that are not available to the public. Your personal information is accessible only by selected Association personnel and our trusted third party vendors.

Cookies and Action Tags

We do not currently use cookies or action tags at our Web Site.

Security

Although Your privacy is very important to us, due to the existing legal regulatory and security environment, We cannot fully ensure that Your personal information will not be disclosed to unauthorized parties. "Perfect security" does not exist and, under certain circumstances, third parties may come into the possession of, or unlawfully access, Your information. In the unlikely event We need to investigate or resolve possible problems or inquiries, We can (and You authorize us to do so) disclose any information about You to private entities, law enforcement, or other government officials as We, in our sole discretion, believe necessary or appropriate.

How Information is Used

- When You become a member of the Association, You may choose to be enrolled in either the National or State points tracking system for calculation of year-end awards (the "Points Program"). The purpose of the Points Program is to publicly recognize the achievements of our members and their horses. To administer this program, We need to publicly disclose Your participation, membership status, show results, and current point standings. This information may appear on our web site and in other Association communications with the public.
- We may also publish pictures of You and/or Your horses on our Web site, in promotional materials for our horse shows and other events, and for use in articles in Flying Changes and other third party publications.
- Members automatically receive a copy of the Flying Changes magazine, which is mailed directly from the publisher using member information provided by the Association.
- We may share pertinent personal information (including billing information) with our business partners or trusted third party vendors to enable us to perform routine business functions and to fulfill the products and services that You have requested.
- If You are the winner of prize money at one of our horse shows, we will report the winnings to the Internal Revenue Service under the tax payer number You have provided.
- We routinely use email and Your street address to communicate with You regarding the maintenance of memberships, services that You have enrolled in, and events.
- Your information may also be used or shared with third parties in order to complete surveys, sweepstakes, contests, or promotions in which You choose to participate.
- We may disclose personal information in accordance with a lawful request or court order, to protect third-party rights, if We believe that the safety of a third-party would be jeopardized by not disclosing data.

Disclosure of Information to Third Parties

The Association uses the services of (i) third parties that process e-mail, mail, and transactions for the Association and its affiliates, and (ii) other entities and persons authorized by You, and We may provide personally identifiable information for the purpose of performing their contractual obligations to us. Except as described in this paragraph and the sections above, We do not permit the sale or transfer of personally identifiable information to entities outside of the Association and our third party service providers for any non-Association use without Your approval.

Opting Out of Points and Marketing programs and Third Party Communication

- You may request to withdraw from the Points Program if You would like us to discontinue making the public disclosures necessary for Your continued participation in the program
- You may also request that the Association not publish pictures of You and/or Your horses on our Web site, in promotional materials for our horse shows and other events, and for use in articles in Flying Changes and other third party publications
- You may request to have Your subscription cancelled to Flying Changes and be removed from any other Association or third party marketing communications that We believe you would be interested in receiving
- You may request that We only contact You for Membership maintenance purposes
- You may request that We not contact You at all.

Please e-mail your opt-out requests to Leeds Gulick (Points Chair) at leedsq@comcast.net or write to him at 12820 NE 39th Street, Bellevue, WA 98005 to request these opt-out options. Be sure to include Your name, address, and telephone, in Your opt-out request. We will use reasonable efforts to act upon Your request within approximately two (2) Weeks following our receipt of Your request. Once Your request has been made effective, We will cease to release Your information, however, You should be aware that it could take up to eight (8) weeks for Your opt-out request to be processed by some of our partners.